

Purple Kinder Weekly Reflection Week 7, 22nd of March March

Through a range of activities this week we celebrate cultural diversity week. St Patricks Day. Holi Day which is also known as the festival of colours.

We also enjoyed the our incursion of the Little Play Fox shop and had a special visit from the Dentist.

Traditionally in the Indian culture people would celebrate Holi Day the festival of colours by chasing each other and throwing bright Gulal coloured water. Through our own interpretation Purple Kinder celebrated Holiday with bright coloured water too.

Drumming during the Little Play Fox incursion

As a group we shared our prior knowledge and learnt about the tradition and celebrations of St Patricks Day

Checking our teeth with the dentist

To end cultural diversity week we enjoyed making Vietnamese rice paper rolls for our afternoon tea
